Administrative Policies:

For security purposes, photo identification upon conference check-in is required.

Conference attendees are required to wear an association issued conference badge for admittance to sessions and events.

Summit schedule is subject to change.

The performance of this Summit is subject to acts of God, war, government regulation, disaster, strikes, civil disorder, curtailment of transportation facilities, or any other emergency that makes it impossible to hold the Summit. In the event of such occurrences, cash refunds will be issued.

A $35 NSF fee will be assessed for each returned check; this does not include fees that may be charged to you by your financial institution.

In order to receive continuing education credit for sessions attended, participants must complete a session evaluation after each session; additional criteria may be required, which is determined by the type of continuing education credit awarded for each individual session.

CANCELLATION POLICY: All requests for cancellation of summit registration must be made to American Board of Forensic Accounting in writing by fax, mail, or e-mail. Phone cancellations will not be accepted. All cancelled registrations will be assessed a $100 administrative fee. All cancellation refunds (less administrative fee) will be issued in the form of check. Cancellations received prior to March 15th, 2015 will be issued a full refund (less administrative fee). Cancellations received after April 15th, 2015 but before June 15, 2015 may receive a refund of one-half of the paid registration fees. No refunds will be issued after June 15, 2015. Cancellations after the June 15th deadline, due to medical condition or illness, family death, or extraordinary circumstances may be assessed for refunds at the Board's discretion. Arrangements for room and board made with UC Santa Barbara will be subject to UC Santa Barbara's cancellation policy.
